

TRAVEL PLAN TO KASAULI

“WHERE SILENCE SPEAKS TO THE SOUL”

VISIT PLACES IN KASAULI

GILBERT TRAIL

MANKI POINT (MONKEY POINT)

CHRIST CHURCH

DAGSHAI

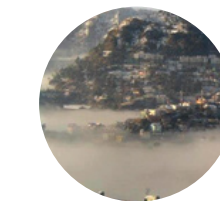

TIMBER TRAIL, PARWANOO

BAROG

JANGESHU WATERFALL

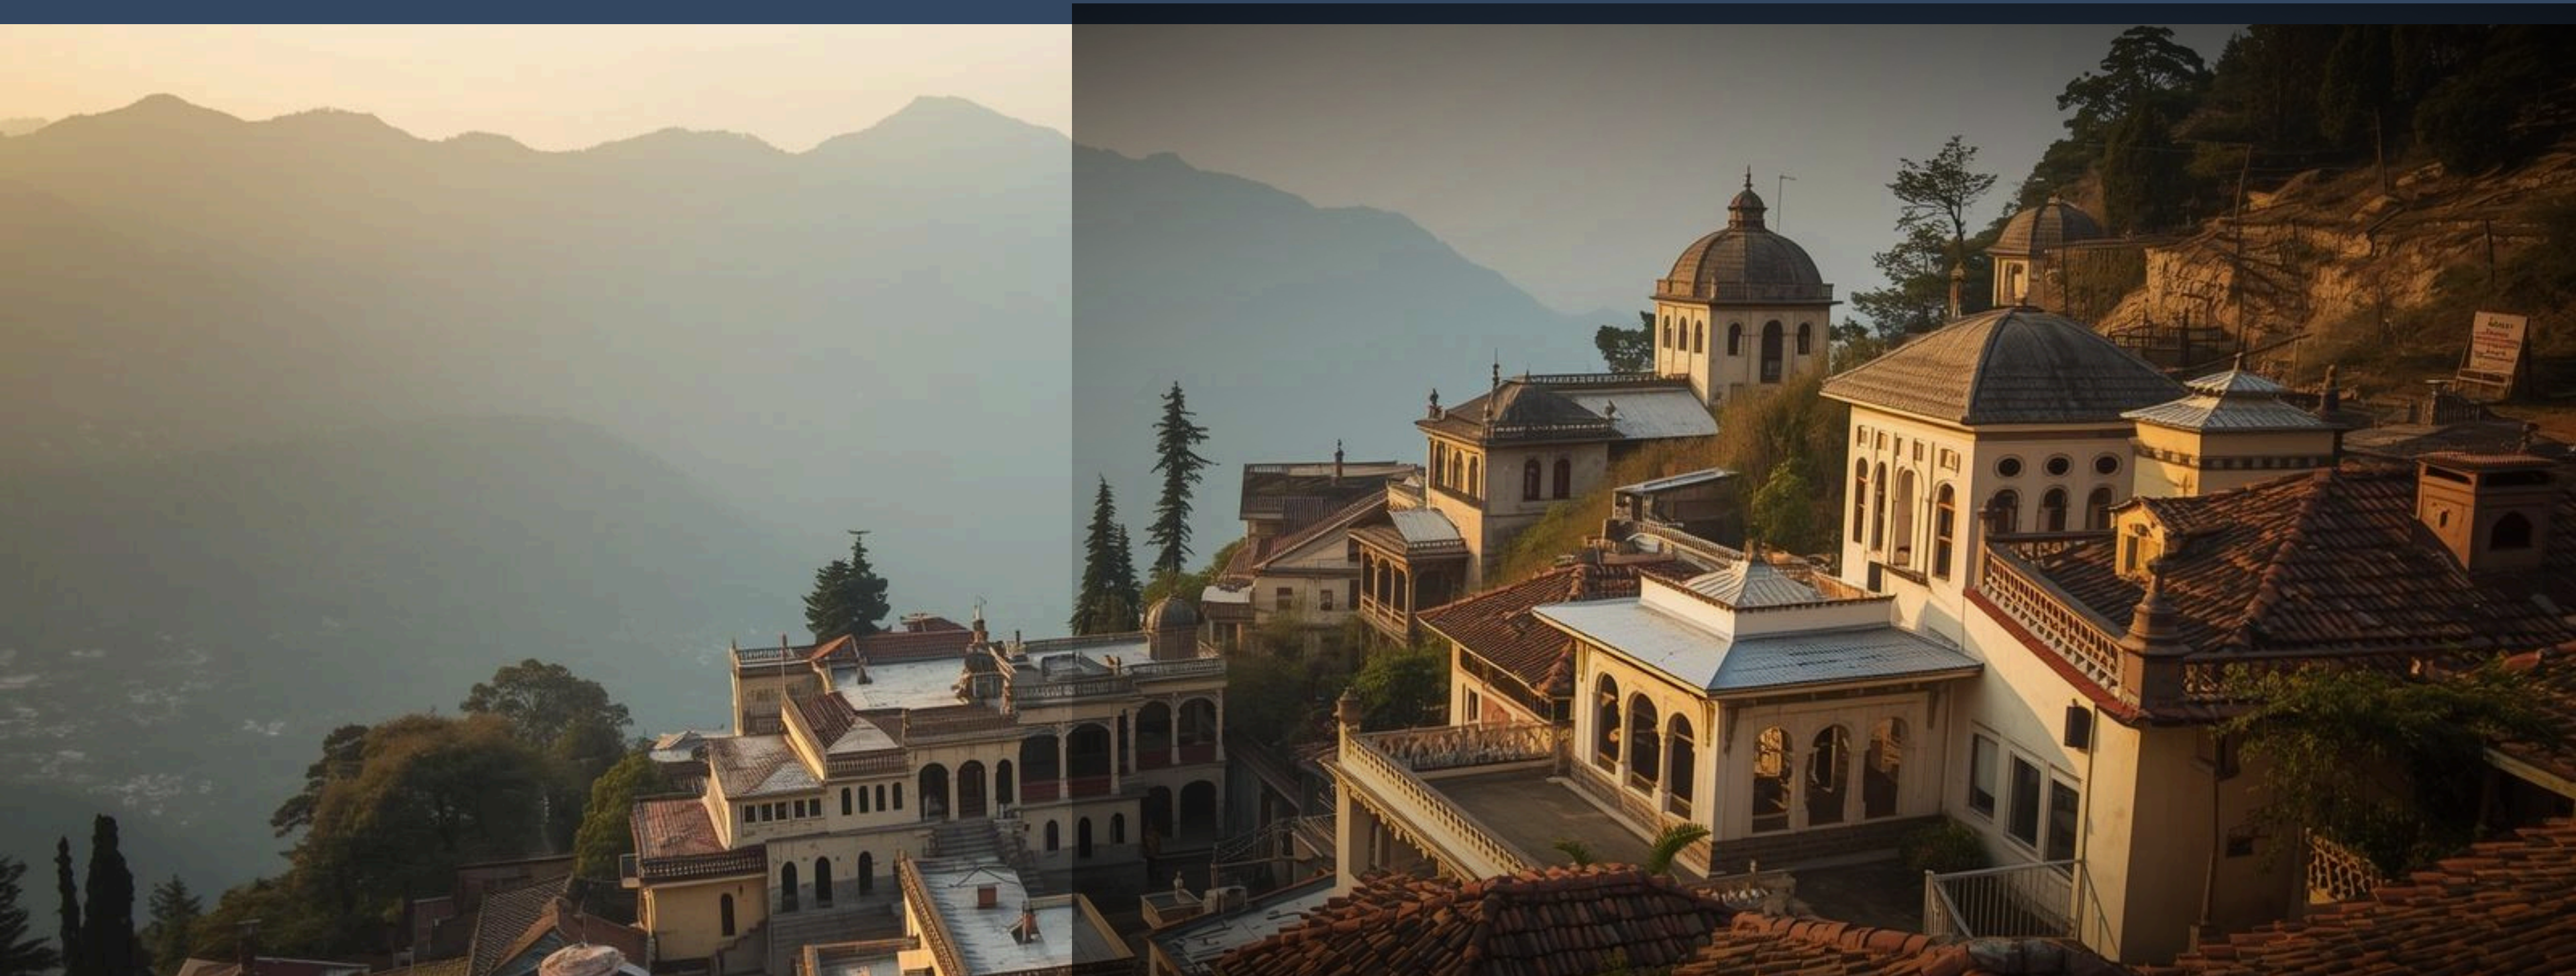

SOLAN

KASAULI

Kasauli is a charming quiet hill station in Himachal Pradesh located at ~1,900 meters known for its colonial-era charm, pine forests, and scenic Himalayan views. Popular for relaxing, couples trips and hiking. It features key attractions like the Gilbert Trail, Sunset Point, and Monkey Point, with a temperate climate year-round.

GILBERT TRAIL

The Gilbert Trail in Kasauli, Himachal Pradesh is a scenic 1.5 km nature trail known for its tranquil, pine-covered path, panoramic valley views, and birdwatching. It is a top easy-to-moderate hiking spot. Located near the Air Force Station. it is best visited from March to June or September to November.

MANKI POINT (MONKEY POINT)

Manki Point (Monkey Point) is the highest point in Kasauli, Himachal Pradesh located within an Indian Air Force base at ~6,400 feet. Known for its panoramic Himalayan views a Hanuman temple and high-altitude winds. It is a key tourist spot requiring a steep 1 km walk. Crucially, electronics are banned and photo ID is mandatory.

CHRIST CHURCH

Christ Church generally refers to prominent Anglican churches in India, most notably the historic 1857 Neo-Gothic church on The Ridge in Shimla or the 1853 church in Kasauli. These sites part of the Church of North India are significant heritage landmarks while other "Christ Church" locations exist as modern independent or evangelical congregations worldwide.

DAGSHAI

Dagshai is one of the oldest scenic cantonment towns in Himachal Pradesh's Solan district located at 5,689 feet founded in 1847 by the East India Company. Known for its old-world charm British-era history and as a quiet hill station. It features a famous 1849 jail turned museum, colonial architecture and a cemetery.

TIMBER TRAIL (PARWANOO)

Timber Trail in Parwanoo, Himachal Pradesh, is a popular weekend destination. Known for its scenic Shivalik mountain views, lush pine forests, and a thrilling cable car ride connecting two resorts. It is a popular, serene getaway featuring amenities like restaurants, swimming pools and in some areas ziplining.

BAROG

Barog is a serene small hill station in Himachal Pradesh, located on the Kalka–Shimla Railway (a UNESCO World Heritage site) in the Solan district. Known for its scenic beauty, pine forests, and mild climate, it is a popular weekend getaway known for its historic, picturesque railway station and the long Barog Tunnel.

JANGESHU WATERFALL

Jangeshu Waterfall is a serene natural tourist spot near Kasauli, Himachal Pradesh (approx. 12 km away), known for its cascading waters, natural swimming pool, and lush forested surroundings. Ideal for visits during the monsoon season, this offbeat spot features crystal-clear spring water and is largely managed for families and couples, with access managed by local properties like Paradise Valley.

SOLAN

Solan known as the "Mushroom City of India" and "City of Red Gold" (for tomato production) is a scenic hill town in Himachal Pradesh, located 46 km south of Shimla. Serving as the district headquarters, it is an agricultural, industrial and educational hub named after the goddess Shoolini Devi.

LEAVING BEHIND NOISE.
CARRYING BACK PEACE.

THANK YOU